

Favorite Websites

Elementary SH Teacher Favorites in WCCUSD

Websites for Students

<http://www.abcya.com/> ABCya.com provides an award winning collection of free, online educational games for elementary students, searchable by grade and topic.

<http://www.starfall.com/> Starfall is a tried and true website for beginning literacy skills and basic math practice.

El Cerrito Wire <http://elcerritowire.com/learn/index.htm> The El Cerrito Wire community website was founded by WCCUSD elementary teacher Betty Buginas. On this K-6 Resources page Betty maintains an excellent collection of links to online educational games organized by curriculum standards. Follow the El Cerrito Wire page on Facebook to read the latest news about WCCUSD.

<http://www.ed1stop.com> Ed1Stop, hosted by the Contra Costa County Office of Education, offers useful content for WCCUSD teachers, students, and parents. Free access to subscription websites such as Learn360 videos and BrainPop Jr. are popular. Contact WCCUSD's Laurie Roberts at lroberts@wccusd.net for a login for yourself, and your students and their families. Pre K-12.

<http://www.multiplication.com/games> Multiplication.com provides a number of math games practicing multiplication, as well as addition and subtraction and some other activities. Teacher recommended for students in the 2nd to 6th grade range.

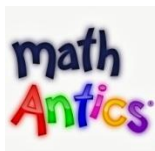

<http://www.ictgames.com> ict games offers free online Math and Literacy activities for Pre K and early elementary students. Good for both whole group activities using the projector, or for individual or small groups of students at computers.

<http://www.eduplace.com/> Education Place, by the Houghton Mifflin Harcourt company, offers Pre K-6 resources for teachers, students, and families to support instruction.

<https://www.bookshare.org> Bookshare.org is the world's largest accessible library, with thousands of books, textbooks, and periodicals available, all with text-to-speech technology to read the text aloud. Sponsored by the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Special Education, Bookshare.org is free for students with an IEP and reading difficulties. Please contact Tom Buckey, a WCCUSD Assistive Technology Specialist, for access or training, at tbuckey@wccusd.net. Grades 3-12 suggested.

<http://www.mathantics.com/> Math Antics offers free videos instructing students in math skills from two digit addition to percents to fractions to geometry. All Grades.

<http://ca.pbslearningmedia.org/> PBS Learning Media California offers a searchable database of videos, lesson plans, and PBS Kids online computer games. Pre K-12.

<http://www.kqed.org/> At KQED watch videos about Science or other educational content and discuss with your students. Pre K-12.

<http://kids.nationalgeographic.com> At the National Geographic Kids website, students can view educational videos and participate in online learning activities. Much of the content is animal and nature oriented. Pre K-5.

<https://www.youtube.com> YouTube hosts a multitude of educational videos. Pre K-12.

Websites for Teachers

<http://www.everythingpreschool.com/> Everything Preschool offers a selection of preschool thematic unit resources, lesson plans, and craft ideas. Pre-K.

<http://www.2care2teach4kids.com/preschool/main.htm> 2 Care 2 Teach 4 Kids aims to be an “early childhood care and resource center.” The website has many ideas for activities and printables, including newsletters designed to facilitate school to home communication.

<http://www.enchantedlearning.com/Home.html> Enchanted Learning offers a large selection of theme-based worksheets and printables for students, Pre K-3.

<http://www.crayola.com/> Crayola hosts a website with lesson plans and resources for use with students Pre K-12.

<http://www.education.com> Education.com is a website designed for parents, but teachers may find useful lesson ideas there, as well. Pre K-12.

SchoolExpress

<http://schoolexpress.com/> At School Express one can access a large collection of worksheets for the elementary student.

SoftSchools.com

<http://www.softschools.com> Soft Schools provides mostly elementary math worksheets, but there are some online student activities, as well.

<http://www.galacticphonics.com> Graphic Phonics offers printable phonics worksheets and other resources.

<https://www.graphite.org> At Graphite one can search for top rated student websites. Pre K-12.