

December Student of the Month

Sheldon Elementary

Being Responsible

Jarren Panganiban

Ms. Mendoza | ESN

Jarren has been awarded Student of the Month for his responsibility. He consistently follows the schedule, patiently waits for his turn, and keeps his belongings organized in their proper places. Great job, Jarren!

Josie Cadena

Ms. Maree | ESN

This month Room 5 is celebrating Josie for showing responsibility. Josie comes to school ready to learn and follows the classroom schedule. During work time, she works nicely with the teachers and independently. Great job showing responsibility, Josie!

Jesse (Kai) Parham

Ms. Sylvia | TK

Kai is always ready to help clean up our classroom. He takes his time when working on our classroom projects and he enjoys participating in all of our discussions. Way to be responsible, Kai!

Meher Randhawa

Ms. Gutiérrez | Kindergarten

Meher is consistently demonstrating responsibility in our class. She is always one to the first to follow directions, keeps her supplies organized and always completes her work. She is a great role model for room 2. Keep up the amazing work Meher!!

Darsobh Singh

Ms. Ransom | Kindergarten

Darsobh exemplifies what it means to be a responsible student.

He makes sure to complete his classwork carefully and turns in homework on time. His work area is always organized and he models correct care of school supplies and outdoor equipment. Great job, Darsobh!

Mia Alvarez

Ms. Howard | 1st Grade

Mia understands the responsibilities of being a 1st grader!

She consistently turns in homework, reading logs, and other projects on time. She studies her spelling words and sight words every week. She takes ownership of her wins and losses. At her table, she's an organized team captain that makes sure her peers are putting materials back in the correct places. Mia makes my job a little easier!

Noor Ajsan

Ms. Berenguer | 1st Grade

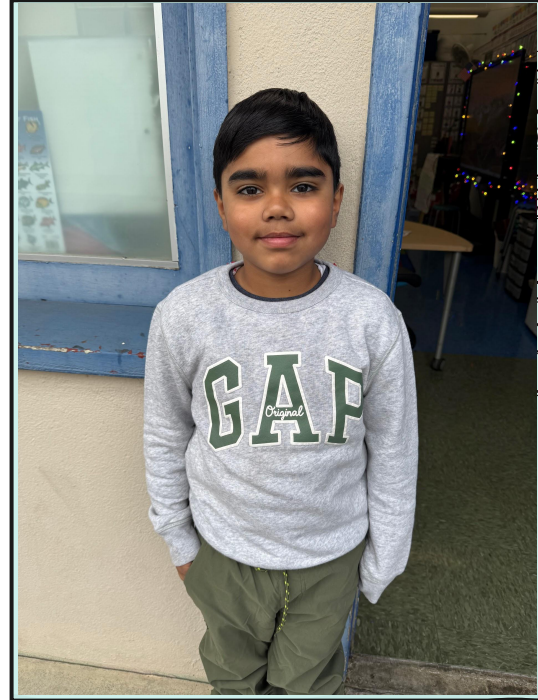

Noor is a responsible student and peer. She strives for success in class. Noor makes good choices in class and cares about her classmates. She completes her work and is helpful to her peers.. Noor is dependable and puts forth her best efforts in her classwork. She is Room 7's Student of the Month. Good job, Noor!

Riyan Khurana

Ms. Avalos | 2nd Grade

Riyan consistently turned in his homework assignments and completed his classwork in a timely manner. He also showed responsibility by showing up to school everyday on time and prepared. Congratulations Riyan for being Room 8's December student of the month!

Sebastian Alvarez

Ms. Tran | 2nd Grade

Sebastian shows responsibility by keeping his desk organized. He gets his materials out quickly and is ready to learn. He does his best to stay focused in order to complete his assignments on time. He is motivated and a good role model for his peers.

Lucas Ibarra

Ms. Wolfman | 3rd Grade

Lucas is an excellent example of someone who is responsible. He takes pride in his work, use his time wisely and consistently does the right thing. Lucas takes ownership for his actions and takes on challenges with optimism and an open mind. Way to go, Lucas!

Clara Carson

Ms. Marker | 3rd Grade

Clara is one of the most responsible students in room 10. She consistently follows class and school expectations and takes ownership for her actions. She completes all her work, takes on challenges willingly and uses her time in class wisely. Way to go Clara for taking pride in all you do.

Oussama Lounis

Ms. Bunney | 4th Grade

Oussama is RESPONSIBLE for his classmates, his job, and his learning! There were a few students that were nominated by our class in large numbers, but I chose Oussama by all that I have seen by him this school year! He has truly worked to be the Student of the Month each month and he has finally gotten it!

VICTORIA REYES

Ms. Casady | 4th & 5th Grade

It brings me great joy to recognize Victoria Reyes for her strong sense of responsibility. Victoria works really hard to complete her school work and utilizes her supports here at school and at home to complete her academic tasks. She takes great pride in the neatness of her assignments. Victoria truly represents a strong and responsible Sheldon Shark!

Maleea Morgain

Ms. Papps | 5th Grade

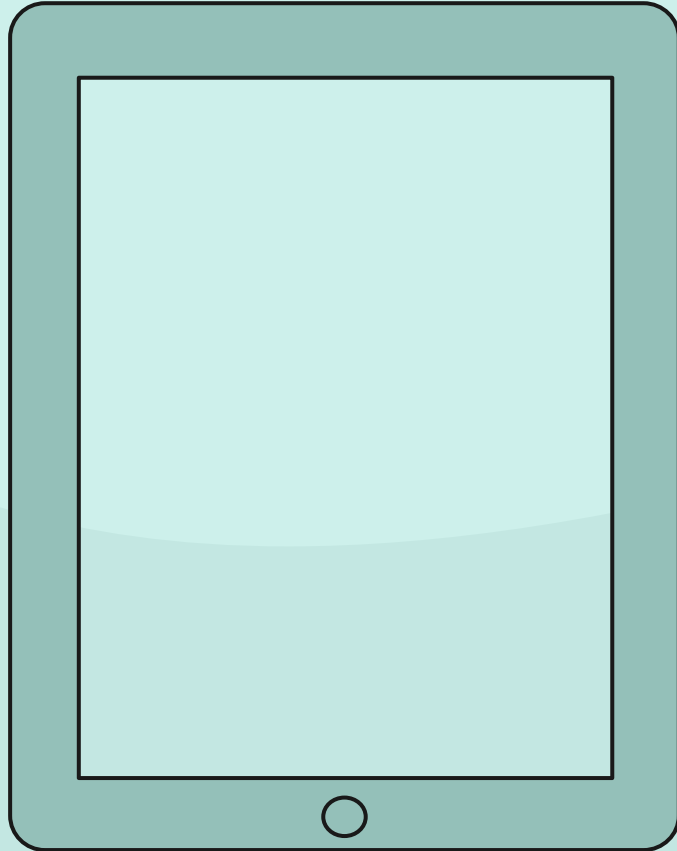

Maleea was named student of the month for always being dependable and hardworking. She is known for finishing her homework on time, being on task in class, and helping her classmates when they need it. Maleea is always respectful and takes care of her duties, whether it's in school or at home. She is a great example of responsibility, and this award shows how much she cares about doing her best."

Lorenzo Hatchett

Mr. Oropeza | 6th Grade

Lorenzo has been selected for this month's theme: "Be Responsible." Lorenzo consistently demonstrates responsibility by completing his assignments on time, staying organized, and helping his classmates when needed. He takes ownership of his learning, participates actively in class, is always prepared with a positive attitude, and asks what he can do more to further his learning. Lorenzo's dedication to being dependable and accountable makes him a role model for his peers. Congratulations, Lorenzo, on this well-deserved recognition!
