

West Contra Costa Unified School District Philosophy on Athletics

West Contra Costa Unified School District is committed to promoting academic excellence for all students. Academic success by student athletes is considered more important and valuable to the district than winning records for competitive teams. Thus, athletics may be sacrificed if academic success is in jeopardy.