BAY AREA VOTING RIGHTS INITIATIVE

[PROPOSED] ORDER OF TRUSTEE
ELECTIONS AND LENGTH OF TERMS
TO SUPERSEDE AUGUST 30, 2018
ORDER

Plaintiffs,

vs.

WEST CONTRA COSTA UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT

First Amended Complaint Filed: May 17, 2017

Defendants,

ORDER

Having considered the parties' Stipulation of Trustee Elections and Length of Terms to Supersede Court's August 30, 2018 Order, and and pursuant to the Court's authority under the California Voting Rights Act and Code of Civil Procedure section 128, the Court vacates the August 30, 2018 Order, adopts this Stipulation and makes the following orders:

1. The three trustee seats, open for election in November 2018, will have a term for two years only.
2. At the November 2020 general election, all five seats will be for trustee area elections. Two or three of the five seats in the November 2020 election will be for two year terms, and the remaining seats will be for four year terms (with the determination of which seats will have two year terms and which will have four year terms to be made at a future date). Therefore, not all five seats will be up for election every four years, keeping some continuity within the School Board through election cycles and tracking the staggered Board election procedures contemplated by the Education Code.
3. This Stipulation and Order shall take effect immediately upon signature and filing by the Court. Defendant shall notify all candidates for the three school board seats for the November

1 2018 election and shall post this Order on its website
