What is in the Name?

A new middle school is nearing completion in El Cerrito. The 'old' Portola was torn down due to safety issues around earth movement. The 'new' middle school is now embroiled in its name. There are many opinions about what the new name should be. Recent ECHS graduate Josh Ko had the naming of the school as one of his topics this week on his school radio show.

If you click the link with this article below you can hear what various members of the community are saying about the name.
