

00:25:36 Kabir Kapur: Pretty ableist statement to say "we are all adults and can read"

00:40:15 Scott Rafferty: substitute stipulated judgment for SBC Code 2-10-9A provide legal representation, if applicable, in court (not including post-map litigation)

00:41:20 Scott Rafferty: No applicable CC Code it was the initiative that set up commisison

00:41:32 Harold Freiman: No County Code applies here. The Stipulated Judgment does.

00:42:41 Scott Rafferty: fairly for fair in last bullet point

00:49:51 Scott Rafferty: 21500-21508 are the Fair Maps Act criteria for counties. The stipulated judgment incorporates very similar language almost verbatim, but strike amendment (about prisons and timing)

00:50:35 Harold Freiman: Another criteria that the School Board had expected and previously recommended was that the independent counsel not have represented the West Contra Costa Unified School District previously, nor that they have sued the District previously, to ensure independence.

00:51:20 Scott Rafferty: I don't think that is appropriate. There is a quakified firm that has represented teachers

00:58:09 Scott Rafferty: local gov entities or piublic interest groups

00:59:07 Commissioner Hilliard: Suggested language for Proposal Requirements, No. 4: Second sentence should read: For example, potential conflicts of interest shall include, but not be limited to, representing , contracting with, or providing legal advice, to the West Contra Costa Unified School District.

01:01:00 Harold Freiman: Board's specific request is that the an attorney who has sued the District in relation to elections laws, and specifically the CVRA, not be eligible.

01:02:10 Jonathan Berry-Smith: We can guide you on what the stipulation says

01:02:53 Harold Freiman: Stipulation does not provide for an independent legal counsel at all. So there is nothing specific about it.

01:07:03 Jonathan Berry-Smith: There may be changes that need to be made to the Submission Section

01:07:07 Harold Freiman: Yes.

01:21:36 Scott Rafferty: S0mehow there are two of me. I have written comments

01:21:50 Scott Rafferty: Can you try one more time to omit me

01:22:07 Scott Rafferty: ... to unmute me

01:23:00 Scott Rafferty: can you just consider my written comments

01:24:27 Scott Rafferty: That's best.. Thank you.

01:25:38 Genoveva Calloway: The public has not received any notice of application process

01:27:51 Genoveva Calloway: So it has not been sent out yet?
