

Requirements for Adult Ed

REGISTRATION FOR HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA

WCCAE offers a high school program for adults ages 18 or older. Upon completion of the requirements, a high school diploma is awarded. Requirements for graduation include completion of 180 required credits.

All new students (18 years or older) must participate in a required orientation. Orientations are held at the Serra Campus. New students are required to bring an official transcript to the orientation. Students must pre-register online or in person at the Serra Office in order to attend the orientation session. Space is limited. Questions regarding the High School Diploma program should be directed towards the school counselor at (510) 231-1453.
