Nature's Path Organic Foods Offers First USDA Organic School Compliant Cereal in the United States for National School Breakfast Program Pioneer in Organic Foods Commits to Making Organic Options More Accessible in Schools to Nourish Kids and the Planet | Nosh

EnviroKidz, the leading kids brand of the Nature's Path Family of brands, announced it is offering the nation's first USDA Organic school compliant cereal as part of the National School Breakfast Program, making delicious, nutrient-rich organic foods more accessible to children. In partnership with Conscious Kitchen and West Contra Costa Unified School District Nutrition Services (WCCUSD), the collaborative program offers participating California schools two gluten free, organic EnviroKidz breakfast cereals as part of students' morning options. With the goal to educate and empower students to feel their best by providing access to nutritious foods to start their day, Nature's Path and partners are reinventing school breakfast with nourishing, organic foods that benefit people and the planet.
