Crespi Middle School - Ken Whittemore

Crespi Middle School was evacuated this morning to a safe area because of a possible gas leak. Staff members including the Executive Director, M & O Executive Director and Communications Director all arrived at the site to assist. The local fire department had not cleared students to return to classrooms as of 10:15 AM. Extra staff and water has been dispatched to the site to assist with the situation.

Parents have been notified and many have come to the school to pick up students. Those students who remain will be stay until the dismissal time.
