Start with Hello Week Tara Hills - Matthew Duffy

Beginning the week of September 23 through September 27, 2019, Tara Hills Elementary will be participating in the social inclusion program called "Start With Hello". Start With Hello enables students to make a difference by encouraging them to take small but powerful actions to promote connectedness and inclusion and to identify and help others who are showing signs of social isolation. Start With Hello is organized by the Sandy Hook Promise, a national nonprofit organization based in Newtown, Connecticut. Attached is a flyer highlighting the week's events for the school.
