

Name: _____ #: _____ Date: _____

Weekly Reading Log

Directions:

1. Read 20 minutes everyday, Monday- Thursday.
2. Choose one comprehension assignment from the reading log menu.
3. Complete it and attach it to this reading log.
4. This is due every Friday.

Day of the week	Book read	Author	How many pages were read?	How many minutes did you read?
Monday
Tuesday
Wednesday
Thursday

Parent Signature: _____

Flip this paper over to see your reading log menu!

Reading Log Menu
Choose one assignment.

1. Summarizing: Write a paragraph telling me what you read about.	2. Word Detective: Find three words in your book that you don't know the meaning of. Look them up in a dictionary and write down their definitions.	3. Compare and contrast: To compare means to tell how two things are similar. To contrast means to tell how two things are different. Choose one: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Compare and contrast this book with another book you have read.2. Compare and contrast two or more characters.3. Compare and contrast an event in the book with a personal experience. Write at least one paragraph.	4. Making Connections: Fill in the blanks: In this story, I can connect to _____. It reminds me of _____. The connection helps me understand _____. What type of connection did you make? Circle one: Text- to- Self Text- to- Text Text- To - World	5. Name It: Name three things you found interesting, two things you learned, and one question you still have.
6. Book Report: See Mrs. Burtch to get the book report worksheet.	7. Find the Main Idea Read a nonfiction book and find the main idea. Find supporting details and write how they support the main idea.	8. Draw it out: Pick three main events in the story and draw them. Add a caption to your pictures to describe what is happening.	9. Predict it! What do you think will happen next? Write a prediction and draw a picture of what you think will happen next in your book.	10. Advertise it: Create a small poster advertising your book. Your poster should show important details in the story and why others should read it.